

BREICOK

THE SERIES

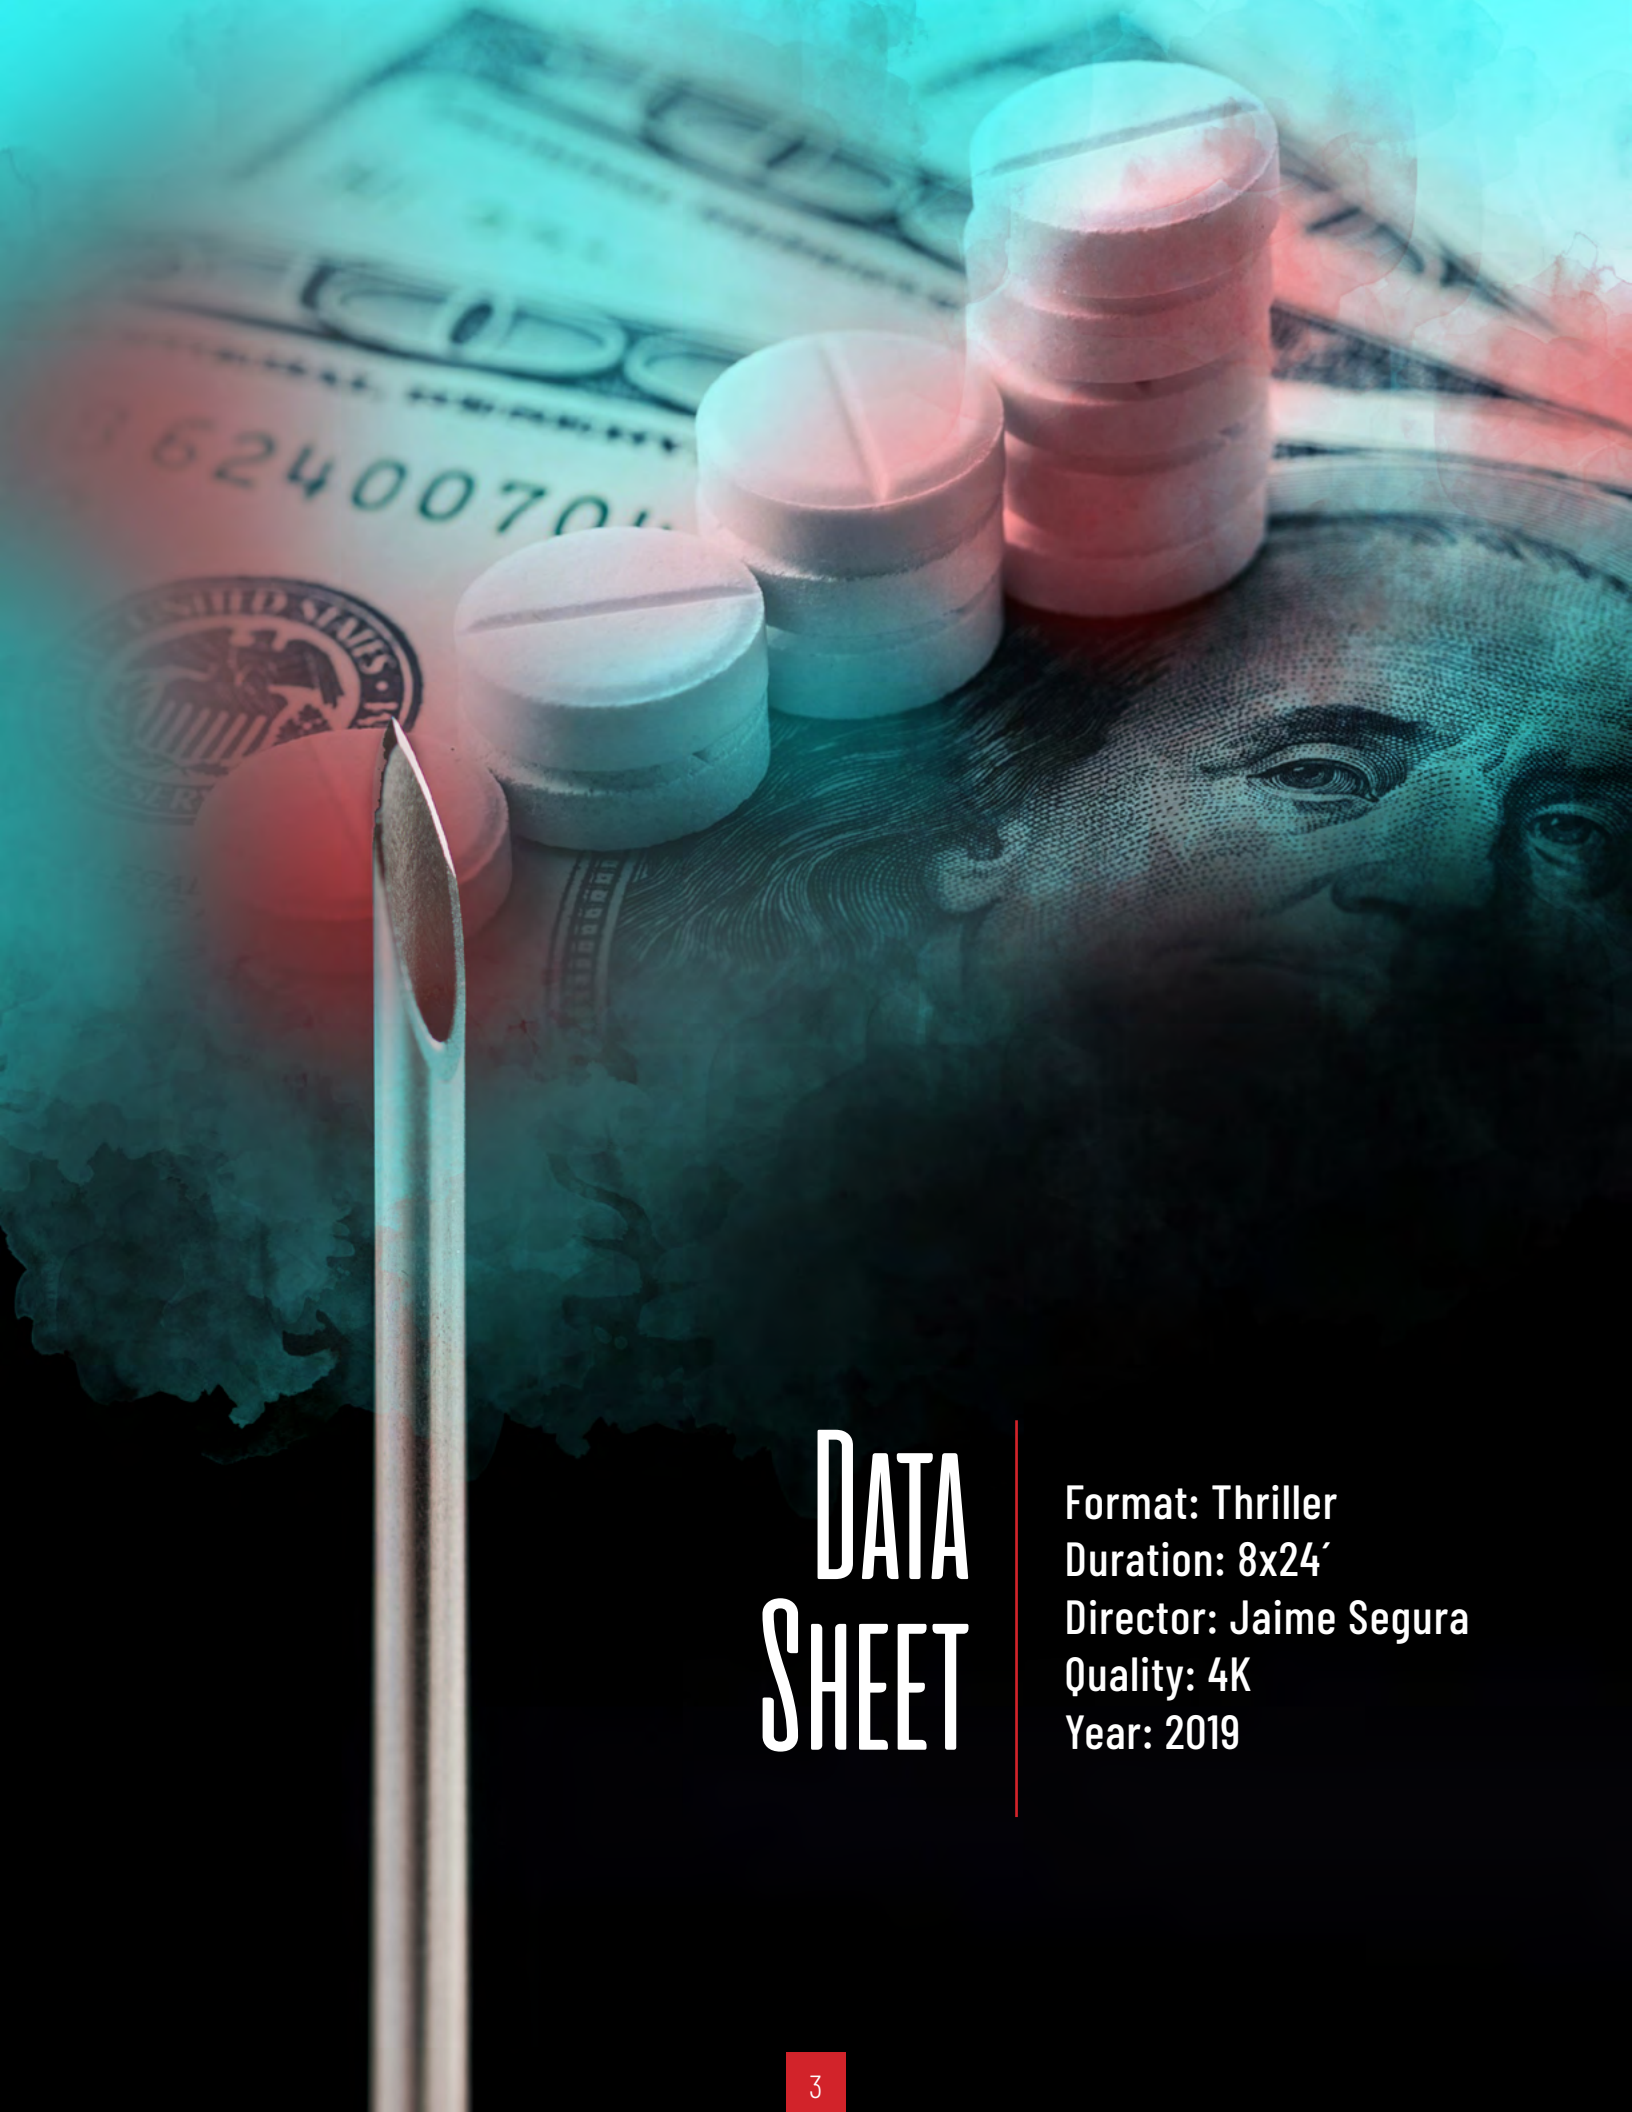

BREICOK

— THE SERIES —

INDEX

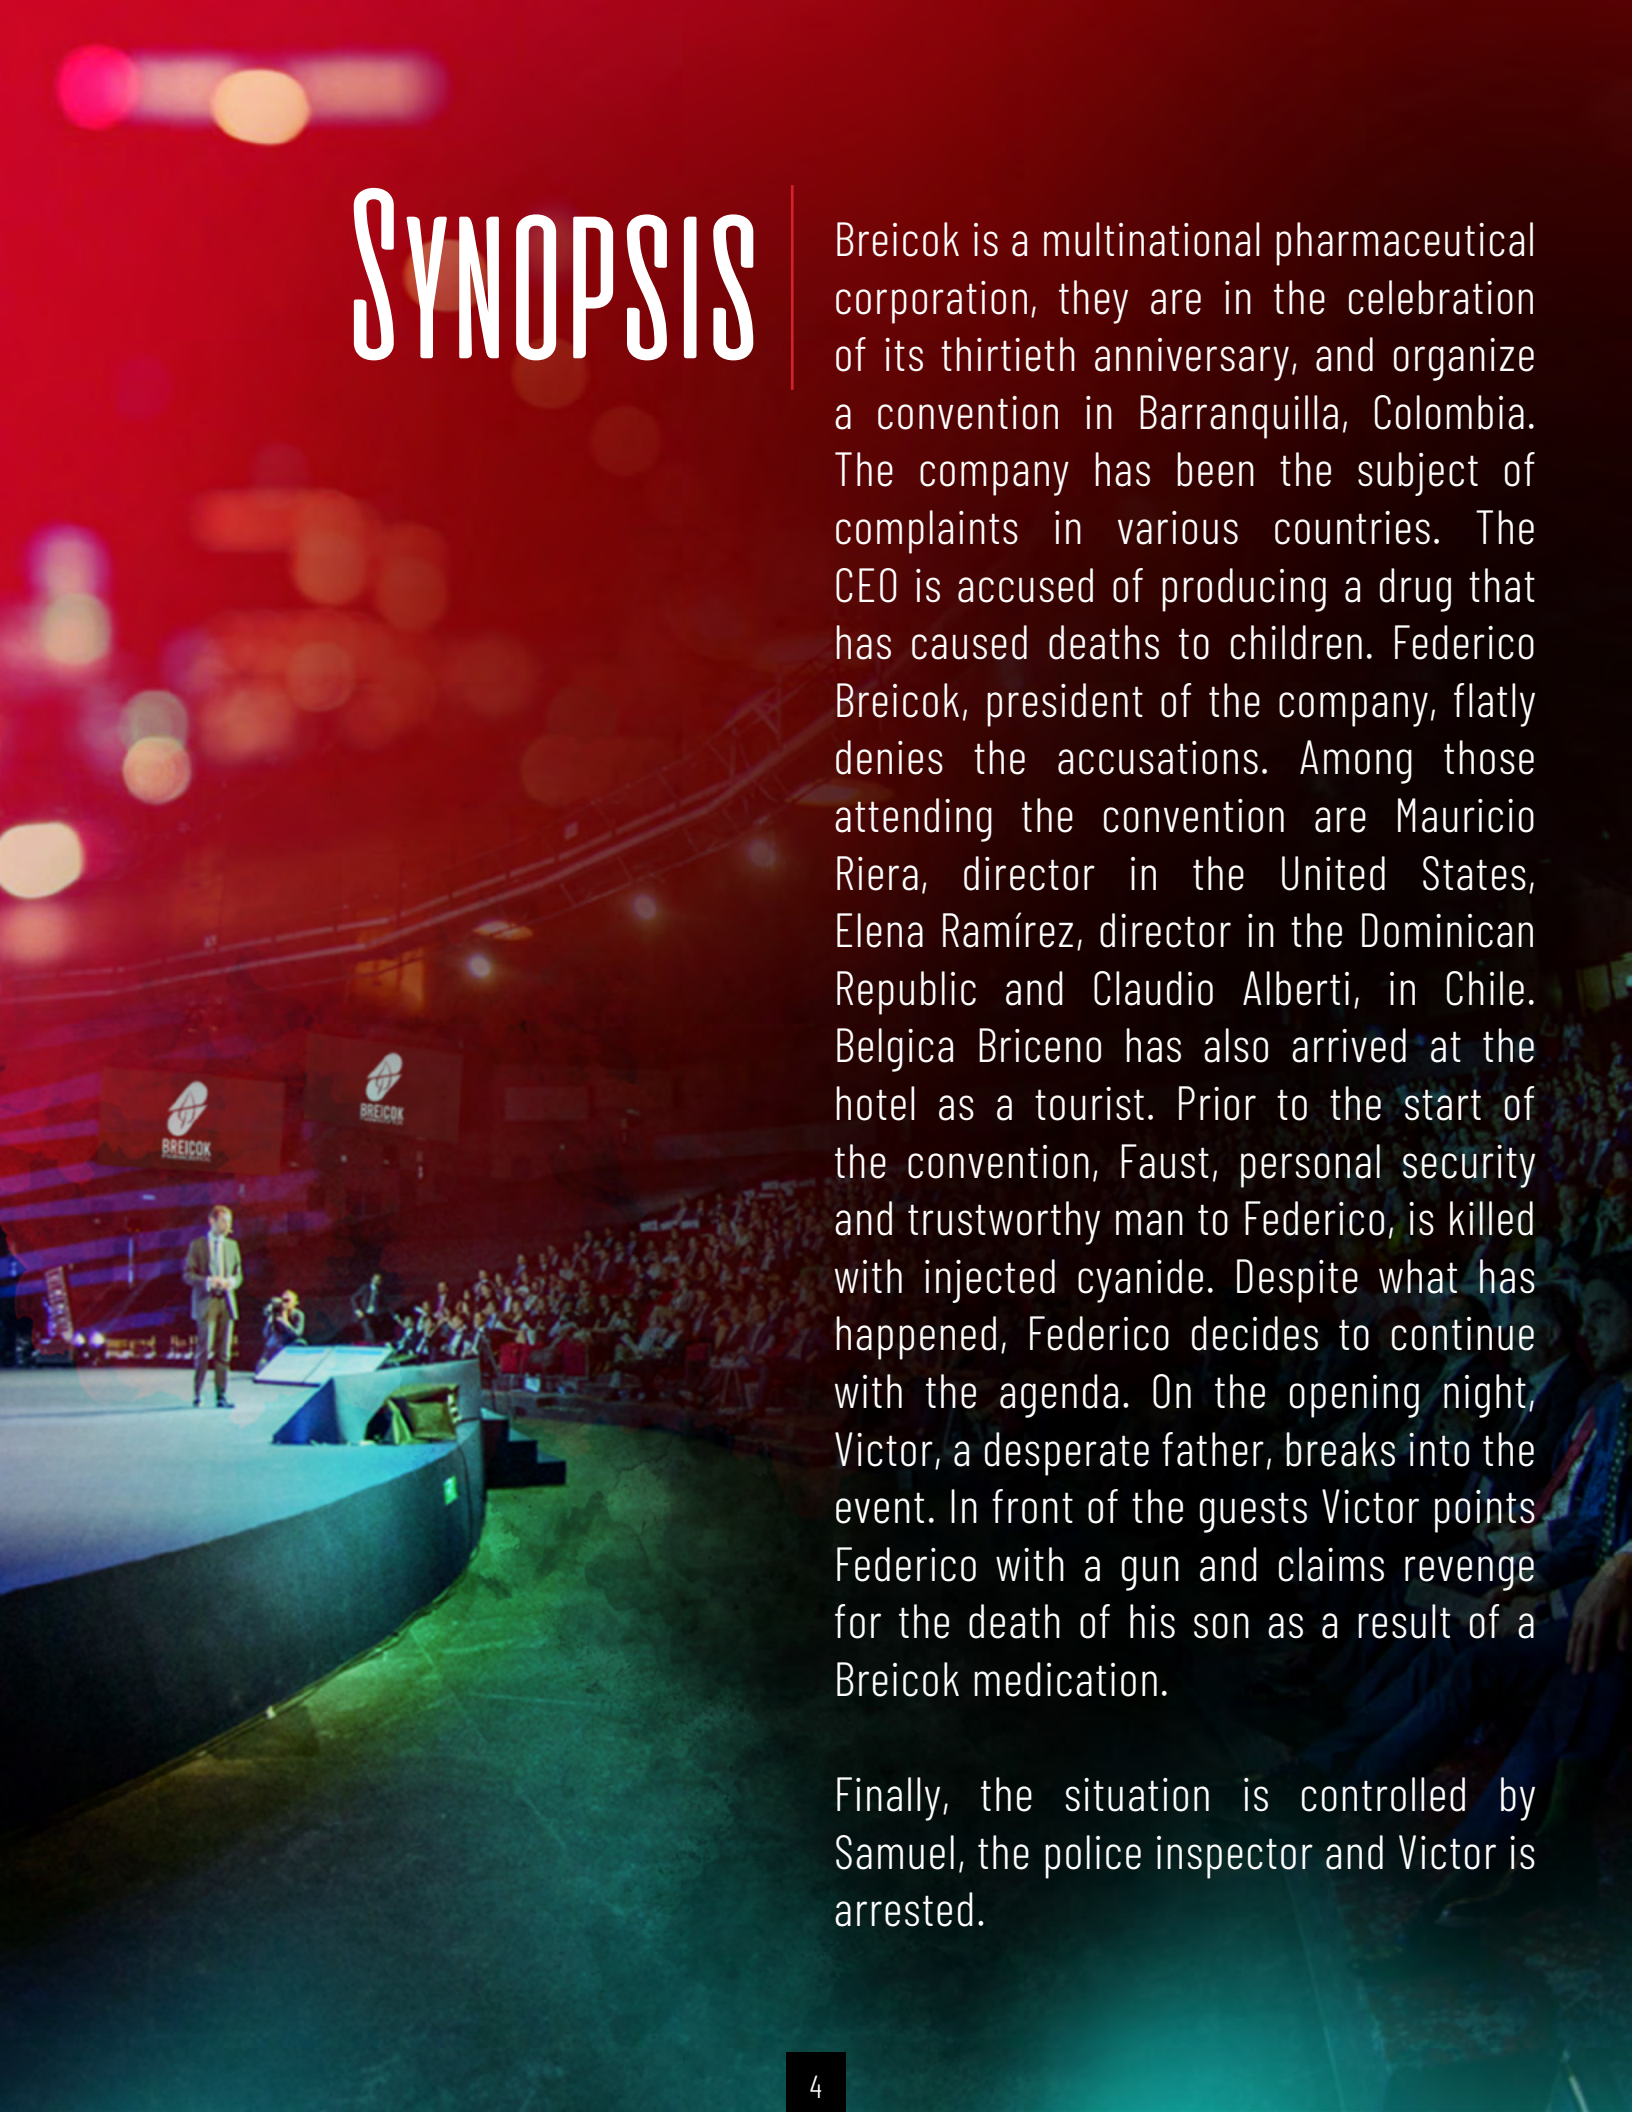

Fact Sheet	03
Synopsis	04
Episodic Summary	06
Characters	14
Director	18
Making Of	19
Locations	20
Co-Producers	22

DATA SHEET

Format: Thriller
Duration: 8x24'
Director: Jaime Segura
Quality: 4K
Year: 2019

SYNOPSIS

A large arena with a stage and audience, overlaid with a red and blue gradient. The stage is lit with blue and green lights, and a speaker is visible on the left. The audience is seated in the background, and the overall scene is dimly lit with a strong red and blue color cast.

Breicok is a multinational pharmaceutical corporation, they are in the celebration of its thirtieth anniversary, and organize a convention in Barranquilla, Colombia. The company has been the subject of complaints in various countries. The CEO is accused of producing a drug that has caused deaths to children. Federico Breicok, president of the company, flatly denies the accusations. Among those attending the convention are Mauricio Riera, director in the United States, Elena Ramírez, director in the Dominican Republic and Claudio Alberti, in Chile. Belgica Briceno has also arrived at the hotel as a tourist. Prior to the start of the convention, Faust, personal security and trustworthy man to Federico, is killed with injected cyanide. Despite what has happened, Federico decides to continue with the agenda. On the opening night, Victor, a desperate father, breaks into the event. In front of the guests Victor points Federico with a gun and claims revenge for the death of his son as a result of a Breicok medication.

Finally, the situation is controlled by Samuel, the police inspector and Victor is arrested.

Mauricio meets Belgica and is attracted to her, the feeling is reciprocal. As the days progress, there are other murders that the police investigate with slips and they are attributed to a serial killer.

Mauricio, who has fallen in love with Belgica, inquires in parallel about the drug. The results confirm the danger of the medicine. Mauricio tells Belgica and she supports him. Mauricio confronts Federico and threatens to report him if they do not withdraw the drug from the market. Federico dismisses him from the company and hires a hitman to kill him. The hitman ambushes Mauricio in his room, surprisingly someone, with his face covered, saves him. The murderer discovers his face and Mauricio is stunned to discover that Belgica saved his life. Belgica confesses to Mauricio his true identity: Ana Andarcia. She explains that her father, Gabriel Andarcia, a pharmacist scientist was tortured and killed by Federico to avoid being denounced for the fatal consequences of a drug produced by Breicok Pharmaceutical. Belgica assures Mauricio that she will avenge her father's death and that of the victims of Breicok's bad practices.

Mauricio asks him not to do so because there is enough evidence to put those responsible in jail. Belgica disappears and Mauricio fails to try to find her. Federico moves his influences, bribes and buys wills by saving himself from jail despite Mauricio's complaints. One night, Belgica enters Federico's house and fulfills his righteous deed by slaughtering him in the pool. The next day Mauricio, in a newspaper stand, reviews the headlines and continues on his way. Belgica, from a distance, melancholy sees Mauricio move away. Immersed in his thoughts, he smiles: Belgica did justice.

LINK TO SCRIPT EPISODE I.

EPISODIC SUMMARY

EPISODE I

2006, Gabriel Andarcia, a scientist at BREICOK LABS, is killed by the trusted men of Federico Breicok, owner of that pharmaceutical corporation. Andarcia leaves a widow and a daughter, Ana, twelve.

Currently, BREICOK celebrates its thirty years with a convention in Barranquilla. Several executives of the company come to the convention, among them, Mauricio Riera, CEO in the United States, Elena Ramírez, director in the Dominican Republic and Claudio Alberti, CEO in Chile.

Belgica Briceño, young beautiful and attractive, arrives at the hotel to spend a few days on vacation. Mauricio Riera sees her from far and feels very attracted to her. Hours before starting the convention, Federico Breicok arrives at a hospital to deliver a donation of medicines. In the hospital, Fausto Hernández, his bodyguard and trusted man, is killed with an injection of Cyanide.

Despite the incident, the convention begins with a welcome party. Belgica, without invitation, tries to enter the event, but fails. Mauricio comes to her aid posing as her husband, kisses her and then they enter the party. Belgica, outraged, confronts Mauricio about the kiss, Mauricio apologizes, but Belgica distances from him. While Federico Breicok gives his welcome speech, an armed man breaks into the event and points at Federico with a gun.

EPISODE II

Victor Cusati, the aggressor, is determined to avenge his son. Party goes record with their cell phones. The police evict the attendees. Mauricio Riera stays and tries to convince Victor to give up. Victor accuses Federico of the death of his sick little son, who was treated with a Breicok drug.

In the hotel lobby, guests and guests watch through televisions. Belgica also watches closely, close to it are Elena and Claudio, Breicok executives. Elena refers to Victor with contempt, considers him a psychopath to be liquidated. Belgica is outraged by the comment.

Eugenia, Victor's wife, arrives at the hotel. Federico tries to convince Victor, offers him money in exchange for his freedom, but Victor is determined. Mauricio tries to mediate, but it is in vain. Eugenia approaches Victor, confronts him and demands that he surrender. Victor moved hugging Eugenia, lowers his weapon and frees Federico, is then arrested.

Elena and Claudio celebrate the outcome. Inspector Samuel Romero quotes Federico to testify and talk about the medicine. Belgica is at the bar, Mauricio has not seen her. Belgica is approaching, congratulates him for having stayed to face the situation. Mauricio invites her to take a walk around the hotel.

Mauricio is affected, he is touched by Victor, a sore man. Belgica is surprised to see that Mauricio is a sensitive man.

Elena arrives at a disco with Iris, her lover. The killer watches them and takes advantage of a time when the two dance on the dance floor to poison Elena's drink.

EPISODE III

Elena and Iris return to the table after dancing. The killer watches the poisoned drink. They kiss and leave without drinking. The assassin approaches the table, spills the poisoned glass and continues towards the exit behind Elena and Iris who enter a car and leave. Federico dawns with Vanessa, his assistant. She is affectionate, but Rodolfo responds coldly. In the elevator, Belgica coincides with Soto, Rodolfo's bodyguard, who obscenely compliments her, she becomes indignant, but maintains her poise. Belgica meets Vanessa at the bar. Vanessa, drunk, confesses to being in love with Federico despite her mistreatment. She also reveals some dark secrets of Federico. At the hospital, Samuel interrogates the doctor who treated Víctor and Eugenia's son. The doctor says that from the moment they started treatment with the Breicok drug, the child got worse and died hours later. The inspector also questions Elena and Claudio about what happened in the Dominican Republic. Elena and Claudio don't collaborate. Soto goes to find the car, Federico waits at the door of the hotel. Upon arriving at the parking lot, Soto is attacked in confrontation and manages to discover the face of the aggressor and is surprised.

EPISODE IV

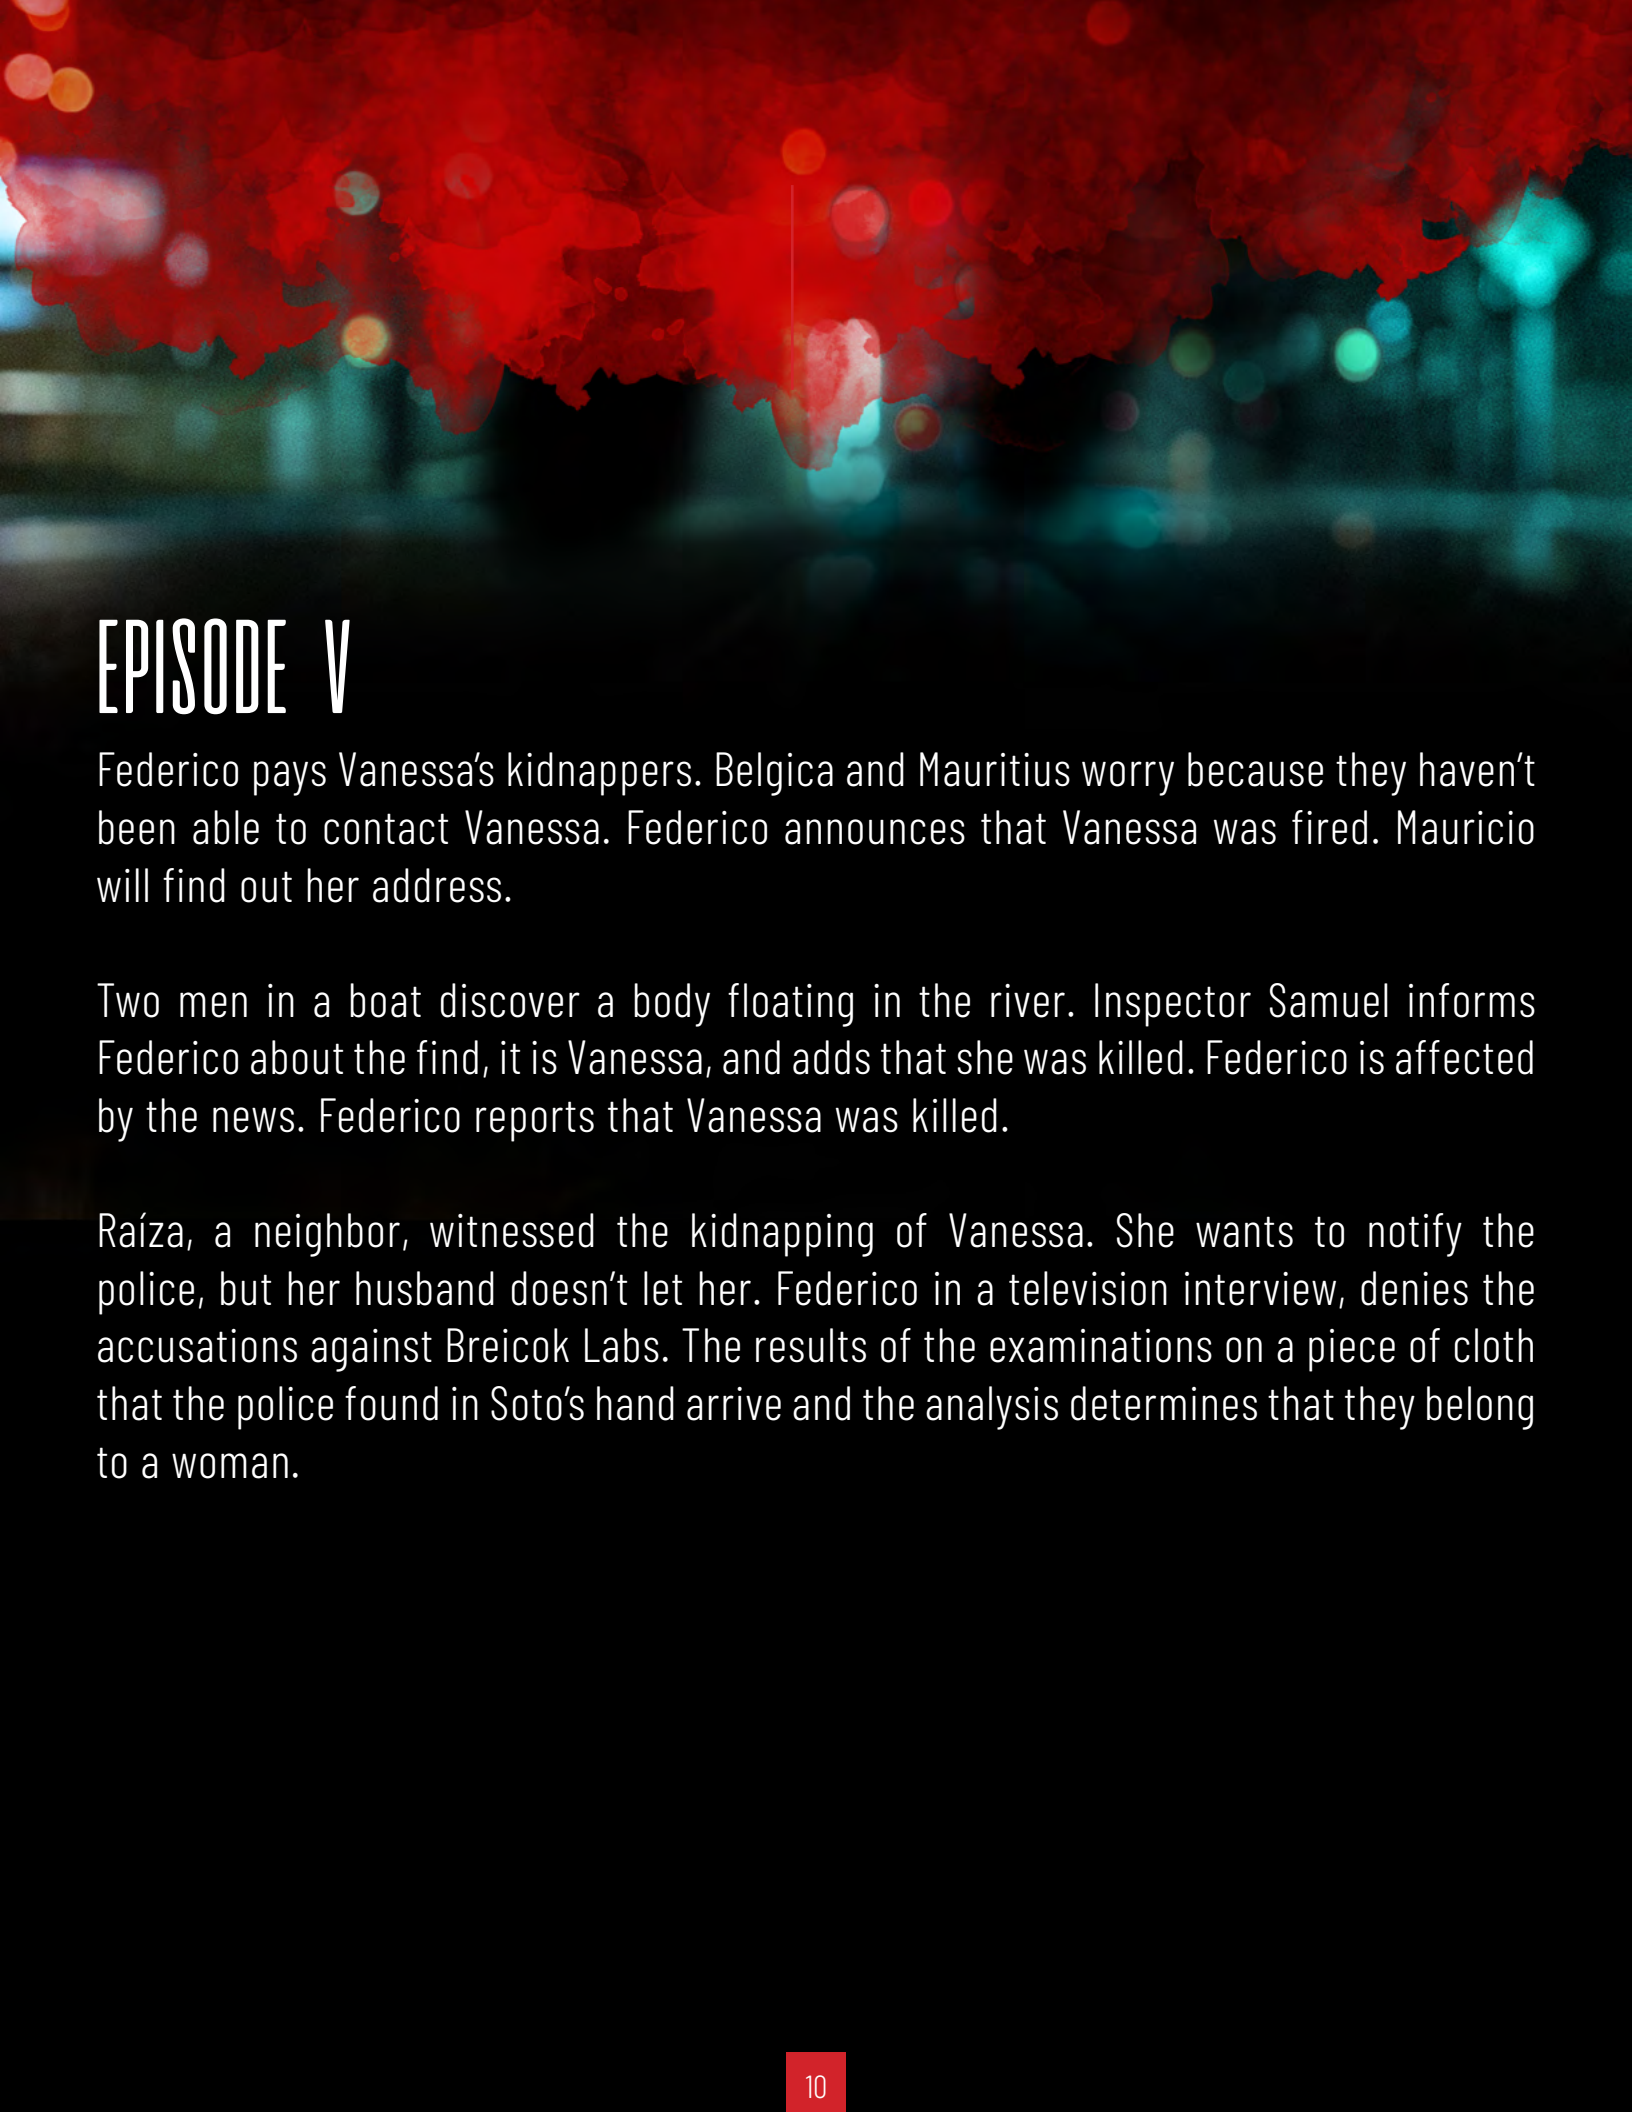

Soto tries to hang the aggressor, who manages to recover an injector that fell during the confrontation and nails it to Soto who screams and dies. The aggressor recovers with difficulty, takes photos and runs away.

Federico and Mauricio discover Soto's body. The police arrive and the inspector Samuel is informed that the modus operandi of the murder is the same one used by the murderer of Faust.

Federico looks for Vanessa in his room and reprimands her. She tells him that she feels mistreated by him, that she can't stand it anymore and that she knows all his secrets. Federico hits her and then dismisses her. Vanessa threatens him with making his abuses public. Mauricio dines with Belgica, lets him know that he doesn't trust Federico and that he plans to investigate the questioned drug. That night they kiss for the first time.

Samuel interrogates Federico and informs him that an investigation has begun on Breicok. Federico refuses to provide information about the company's formulas. Vanessa confesses to Belgica that Federico is an unscrupulous being who keeps his secrets that she can supply. Belgica informs Mauricio about the conversation with Vanessa. Mauricio says he will talk to her.

Federico arrives at Vanessa's room, asks her to forgive him and invites her to dinner. She, with skepticism, accepts. Vanessa leaves the hotel, arriving at Federico's car, two men ambush her, sedate her, and put her in the car.

EPISODE V

Federico pays Vanessa's kidnappers. Belgica and Mauritius worry because they haven't been able to contact Vanessa. Federico announces that Vanessa was fired. Mauricio will find out her address.

Two men in a boat discover a body floating in the river. Inspector Samuel informs Federico about the find, it is Vanessa, and adds that she was killed. Federico is affected by the news. Federico reports that Vanessa was killed.

Raíza, a neighbor, witnessed the kidnapping of Vanessa. She wants to notify the police, but her husband doesn't let her. Federico in a television interview, denies the accusations against Breicok Labs. The results of the examinations on a piece of cloth that the police found in Soto's hand arrive and the analysis determines that they belong to a woman.

EPISODE VI

Samuel concludes that he is looking for a murderer. Mauricio confesses to Belgica his concern about working in a criminal corporation, he plans to resign. Belgica and Mauricio make love. Federico speaks on the cell phone with Vanessa's killers, orders them to disappear, the police are on top. Samuel analyzes the videos of the streets where Vanessa went before being kidnapped, finds no evidence, one of the cameras was sabotaged. He asks to collect the videos from the hotel cameras. Mauricio meets with a medical researcher to check if the medication is harmful. Samuel interrogates Federico, presses him and asks if he mistreated Vanessa. Federico reacts indignantly. The killer arrives at Iris's apartment who opens the door. The killer injects him with a sleeping pill, searches for Iris's cell phone and sends a text message to Elena. Federico meets with the Deputy Secretary of Security of the country, asks him to press to prevent the investigation against Breicok. Mauricio watches from a distance. Elena arrives at Iris's apartment, the door is open. Elena enters and in doing so, the killer struggles a little with her, but manages to inject the cyanide. Elena dies immediately.

EPISODE VII

The police arrive at Iris's apartment. Samuel notices, this is another crime with the same procedure and Breicok employees. The deputy secretary refuses to collaborate with Federico.

Mauricio and Belgica arrive at the police, inform Samuel about Federico's meeting with the Vice Secretary of Security. Claudio is anguished with what is happening, he is going to leave the convention, he fears for his life. Samuel orders Pantoja, his assistant, to inquire about what happened in the Dominican Republic and orders to monitor the hotel of any strange movement. Mauricio confronts Federico, he accuses him of receiving payments from the competition and he dismisses Mauricio. The investigating doctor gives Mauricio the first tests he has done on the drug. It is definitely dangerous in certain conditions. Isabel, Vanessa's mother, gives Samuel a paper in which her daughter describes Federico's abuses. Mauricio confronts Federico in front of his executives. Raíza informs the police that she has seen two men kidnapping a woman.

Raíza wrote down the license plate number, hands it to Samuel. Federico hires a hitman to kill Mauricio. Mauricio faces the hitman, they fight to the death. The murderer enters Mauricio's room and gets hit by the hitman, injecting him with cyanide. The murderer is discovered before Mauricio, who is amazed to discover that it is Belgica. She gives her real name: Ana Andarcia, daughter of Gabriel Andarcia, the scientist Federico killed several years ago.

EPISODE VIII

Belgica confesses to Mauricio that she killed Federico's bodyguards for the murder of her father, and Elena for her complicity in covering up the deaths in the Dominican Republic. Belgica adds that her mother committed suicide by not enduring so much pain. Mauricio asks if he was on her list, she agrees and clarifies that she took it out when she discovered that he is a man of integrity. The results of the investigation of the license plate of the car that kidnapped Vanessa indicate that it belongs to Breicok Labs. Samuel has evidence to stop Federico and he does so. Samuel interrogates Federico, accuses him of Vanessa's murder. Federico reacts indignantly, says that someone must have taken the car from the parking lot to get him involved.

Mauricio meets the investigating doctor again, who gives him the final results of his research on the drug which is definitely lethal. Belgica leaves the Hotel. Federico's lawyer and the Prosecutor of the Public Ministry are present at the interrogation. Both believe that the evidence presented is not conclusive. The Prosecutor orders the release of Federico.

Mauricio arrives at the police, shows the tests performed on the drug. The Prosecutor argues that the exams are not official, therefore, they are not sufficient evidence for Federico to remain detained. The prosecutor will order an investigation. Months go by and Federico is still free. In a television interview he says he is innocent since he has not been able to prove anything. Samuel and Mauricio watch the interview. Mauricio is very frustrated, Samuel promises that he will continue the investigation. Federico arrives at his house late at night, his butler serves a drink in the pool of his mansion. Federico is left alone. Belgica suddenly appears, puts a knife in his throat and asks if he remembers Gabriel Andarcia.

End Season 1

CHARACTERS

ACTOR: JULIO CESAR LUNA

IMDB

FEDERICO BREICOK

President of the Breicok Labs Corporation, a multinational pharmaceutical and medicine company. Federico is an unscrupulous man, capable of doing anything to achieve his goals. He seems to be a man with ethics, accessible, sometimes sympathetic, but in reality he hides that dark personality of the sociopath. Very hardworking and demanding, he maintains a fluid relationship with his relatives whom he manages and uses very intelligently.

He does not accept criticism and is handled with both hands: on the one hand he appears to be consistent and supportive, he shows that he is a man who works to improve the health and life of people, on the other hand he is able to kill so that they do not discover the dark secrets of your corporation.

MAURICIO RIERA

Senior executive of the BREICOK Corporation, CEO in the United States. Mauricio is a man with his feet on the ground, with clear objectives, he knows how to handle himself as a fish in the water in corporate matters. He is famous for being a Casanova and is very polite and also with honesty to the test, does not accept stumbling or dark issues at odds with ethics. Mauricio is attracted to Belgica, there is something enigmatic about her. They both fall in love, he realizes they have a lot in common. Mauricio confronts FEDERICO BREICOK at the same moment that he realizes that a medicine produced by The Corporation has apparently killed several children. His ethical position towards life is what makes Belgica fall in love with him and the public as well.

ACTOR: EILEEN ROCA

IMDB

BELGICA BRICEÑO

Beautiful young woman, very attractive. His figure attracts all who see it happen. She is a firm woman who knows what she wants and where she is going. She is staying at the hotel where the convention is held because her goal is only one, revenge. Actually, Belgica Briceño is just a fake name, but her real identity is Ana Andarcia, the daughter of Gabriel Andarcia, the scientist whom Federico Breicok sent to kill a few years ago, keeping the exploitation rights of all his inventions ... Ana and Belgica move In the scene, Ana has found an abandoned place where she saves and manipulates the photos of all the executives of the Breicok Corporation who she is going to kill, one of them is Mauricio Riera, but she falls in love with him and this produces a great conflict.

ACTOR: JULIO ECHEVERRI

IMDB

SAMUEL ROMERO

Police inspector, intuitive, insightful man, the epic police with smell to detect and investigate criminal acts. He undertakes a thorough investigation against the Breicok Corporation due to the news and complaints that speak of the death of several children by a drug produced by the company of Federico. Samuel is an honest policeman who believes in law and justice, he is not bribed.

DIRECTOR

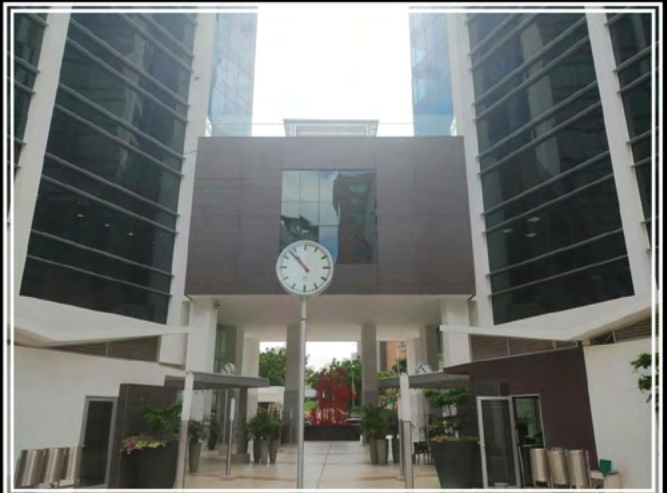

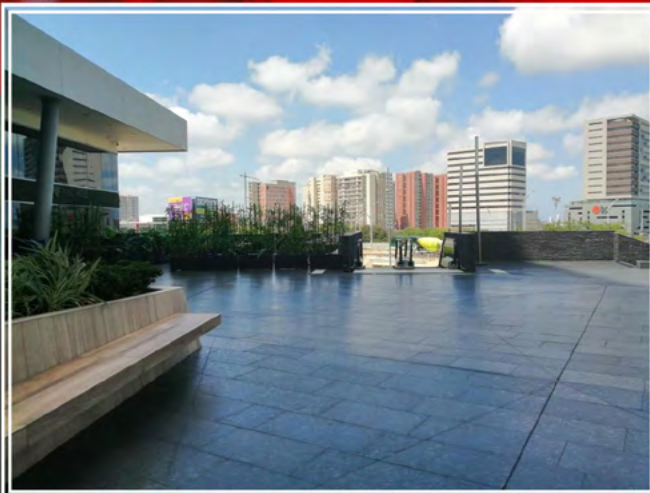

JAIME SEGURA

IMDB

MAKING OF

LOCATIONS

LOCATIONS

A Co PRODUCTION Of

El futuro
es de todos

Gobierno de Colombia

telecaribe
#mesuena

Mediamáne Inc.
Digital Media Architects

DEMO AND EPISODES

THANKS

<https://vimeo.com/showcase/7104914>

PASS: BCK2020

THANKS