ABOUT IRREVERSIBLE

The series, written and directed by the prominent producer Carlos Pinto, portrays fictional stories (inspired by real life criminal cases) from ordinary people who never imagined they could commit a crime.

“Irreversible” tells stories that peacefully starts in a neighborhood, a town, a place where nothing ever happens. But, suddenly, an incident marks the life of the protagonists of each story, that peace disappears and the impulse of committing a crime takes over their thoughts: a decision that will change their lives forever, there's definitely no turning back.

"CORE" OF IRREVERSIBLE

"Irreversible" is a series of unitary episodes where different stories are united by an umbilical cord: a human being facing an abyss and deciding whether to take a step forward or a step back; the first option will inevitably lead the person to become a murderer and irreversibly, fall into the void.

IRREVERSIBLE

IRREVERSIBLE INTERNATIONAL STORIES

The “Irreversible” stories are reported and investigated based on local and international crime reports, especially of Latin American countries, such as Argentina, Mexico, Peru, and Uruguay, however, there are episodes based on murder cases of Spain, France, and USA.
