THE WORLD IS CHANGING.

Synopsis

"The series, written and directed by the prominent producer Carlos Pinto, portrays fictional stories inspired by real-life criminal cases; these are the stories of ordinary people who never imagined of committing a crime.

The stories of "Irreversible" peacefully start in a neighborhood or a town where nothing ever happens. But suddenly, an incident happens which marks the life of the protagonist, destroys peace and brings out the impulse of committing a crime. The heroes are taking a decision that will change their lives forever; there's definitely no turning back.

"Irreversible" is a series of unitary episodes in which different stories are linked with an umbilical cord: a human being facing an abyss and deciding whether to take a step forward or a step back; the first option will inevitably lead the person to becoming a murderer and irreversibly, fall into the void."
